

PEGASUS SCHOOL

part of the SENAD Group

Pegasus School Profile

Our School:

Pegasus School is situated in the grounds of Caldwell Hall, 5 miles from Burton on Trent on the borders of Staffordshire, Derbyshire and Leicestershire.

We provide education and care for children and young people between the ages of 8 - 19 years, who have challenging behaviour and severe and complex communication and learning difficulties.

Pupil Profile:

- Autistic spectrum disorders at the severe end of the spectrum, severe learning disabilities and associated challenging behaviour. A range of other difficulties associated with Fragile X, XYY syndrome, global sensory needs, hearing impairment, Down's syndrome.

Features of our Provision:

- Approval status for severe and complex communication and learning difficulties and associated challenging behaviours
- 38 - 52 week residential and day provision
- Age range 8 - 19 co-educational
- High level of staffing
- Integrated speech and language therapy, occupational therapy
- On-site nursing team
- Access to specialist services, clinical psychologist, clinical paediatrician, CAMHS
- British Safety Council Health and Safety Five Star Award Status
- Investor in People status
- National Health Promoting School status
- Integrated, flexible approach with personalised learning
- Practical/functional curriculum with strong enterprise/work related focus

- National Framework accredited courses
- Small family units especially for younger pupils
- Good SEN Connexions links
- Outreach to parents
- Strong community links
- Strong safeguarding culture & practice
- Good behavioural support.

We can arrange an immediate, free, no obligation assessment.

For more information about our work, to arrange an assessment or advice on a difficult case.

Please call:

Hugh Rodger - Head Teacher

Tel: 01283 761352 Email: info@pegasusschooluk.com

Pegasus School, Caldwell Hall, Main Street, Caldwell
Derbyshire DE12 6RS

Or

Cyrene Cullen – Customer Relations Manager

Tel: 01332 378840 Mobile: 07738 486836

Email: cyrilencullen@senadgroup.com

pegasusschooluk.com